AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENTS.

After striking Ruth Wood, a 15-year-old colored girl, near Rockville, Md., yesterday afternoon, Roy N.
Palmer, a Washington automobile agent, lost control of his car. It dragged the girl 50 yards, dropped down a small embankment, threw Mr.
Palmer out and then went on another 50 yards until a negro stopped it.
Mr. Palmer's skull is fractured. The girl died last night.

Mr. Palmer was probably overcome when he hit the little girl, who was walking along with four companions.
She was almost at her door when the car came along. She seemed bewildered and ran to the right side of the road when her companions went the other way. Her mother was in the door and saw her child hit. At the moment of the crash the car swerved as if Mr. Palmer had collapsed. It went wild across the road, then turned to one side and went down the declivity. A wheel fell off and the driver landed on his head.
A negro, who happened by, jumped to the wheel of the machine and stopped it 50 yards farther.

Hampton's Magazine for July, which has been received from its publishers in New York, presents a most attractive table of contents. The latest instalment of Commander Peary's "Discovery of the North Pole" tells of his trip beyond his previous "farthest north" and presents many proofs which he refused to turn over to Congress. The second act of Rostrand's "Chanticleer" is given and Chas. E. Russell continues his attack upon the financial corruption of the Southern Pacific Railroad in California. A fighting charter for the city child" reveals many startling facts about diseased children in our large towns. "Personalities," "Excesses," "Gags" and "The speed kings" are most readable and the fiction of this issue is far above the average.

Two persons were instantly killed, three dangerously injured, and two others hurt, when a large automobile was struck near Charlevoix Pa., yesterday afternoon by one of the heavy suburban cars of the Pittsburgh Railway Company.

The dead are William H. Hamilton, aged 43 years, an undertaker of Roscoe, Pa., and his son Roy aged 22 years.

The accident occurred at Beechwood Park crossing about a mile south of Charlevoix. The crossing is approached at a considerable down grade and it is believed that Hamilton misjudged the speed of the approaching trolley car.

The occupants were thrown as if from a catapult. Hamilton and his son, who were on the front seat, landing on their heads. The automobile took fire after the accident.

An automobile, containing Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Block, became unmanageable at Cape May last night and dashed into a telegraph pole.

Mrs. Block was thrown against the pole and had her skull crushed, while her husband sustained less serious injury.

Harold Backus, a chauffeur aged 22, was killed, and two companions whom he took on a "joy" ride at 3 a. m. yesterday were injured, when the machine crashed into a telegraph pole at Smith-port, Pa. Harold McCarthy, one of the party, is in a serious condition, and Frank Purdie, the third member" bears severe cuts and bruises.

SPAIN WARNS VATICAN.

Premier Canalejas said on Saturday that if the negotiations between the Spanish government and the Vatican over the revision of the concordat were broken off Rome would be responsible.
He said:

"The full text of the Vatican's reply has not been received yet, but we know from the telegraphic summary that it does not constitute a response to our note, but is confined exclusively to a protest against the imperial decree of June 11, and is therefore an invasion of the state's sovereignty, which is not tolerable. The church falsely accuses us of an attack upon the Catholic religion. We are simply defending the sovereignty of the state.

Premier Canalejas added that if the Catholics persisted in their threats of a civil war he would have recourse to the courts.

A dubious element in the situation is the attitude of King Alfonso, upon whom great influence is being exercised to cause him to overthrow the Canalejas ministry. At the same time the premier is holding the monarch to a strict fulfillment of the promises which he said Alfonso made when the present cabinet took office.

Canalejas's religious reform policy has aroused the bitter antagonism of the Spanish episcopate and of Catholic societies throughout the country. At a recent meeting of the Catholic defence societies it was announced that before the policies outlined were permitted to become law, Spain would undergo a perilous crisis, as Catholics preferred civil war to the lay school system.

Upon the day that the radical government assumed power Canalejas announced that he would further the programme of religious freedom mapped out by the preceding ministry. This included a revision of the concordat and the compelling of unauthorized religious orders to seek authorization under the law adopted in 1887. The establishments of some religious orders not complying with the terms of this law have been since closed by the government.

An imperial decree of June 11 permitted non-Catholic religious edifices to display the insignia for public worship. The Vatican protested on the ground that the status quo should be continued until the revision of the concordat had been completed. Canalejas replied that if the issue of the decree was coupled with the revision negotiations the latter would be broken off. The Vatican remained firm in its attitude that the subject of the decree must be first disposed of, and following a cabinet meeting on Friday, Canalejas announced that the papal protest against the decree would be ignored and the government's programme as authorized carried out.

The Spanish government has received by telegraph another note from the Vatican, in which it is stated that the Vatican will reply to the full text of the government's proposals, which have now arrived. This leaves the negotiations between the Spanish government and the Vatican relative to the subject of the church and non-Catholic religious societies still in abeyance, and practically where they were a week ago.
